- (3) the distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a buy-back of shares, capital restructuring, etc. in accordance with these Articles of Association;
- (5) the provision of loans by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance was paid out of the Company's distributable profits); and
- (6) contributions made by the Company to the employee shareholding scheme (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance was paid out of the Company's distributable profits).

CHAPTER 6: SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 44

The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

The share certificates of the Company shall bear the following main items:

- (1) name of the Company;
- (2) date of registration and establishment of the Company;
- (3) type of shares, par value and the number of shares it represents;
- (4) the serial number of share certificates;
- (5) other matters as required by the Company Law, and the securities exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 45

Share certificates shall be signed by the chairman of the board of directors. The stock exchange, where the Company's shares are listed, requires signature by senior management, shall be signed by the responsible senior management. Share certificates shall take effect upon affixing of the Company's seal or a seal imprinted thereon. The affixing of the Company's seal on share certificates shall be authorized by the board of directors. The chairman of the board of directors or responsible senior management may sign on the certificate or use printed form.

Article 46

The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

- (1) the name (title), address (domicile), occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up or agreed to be paid-up on the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder; and
- (6) the date on which each shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

The register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholding in Company, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

Article 47

The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the CSRC and overseas securities regulatory organizations, keep outside the People's Republic of China its register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares, and appoint overseas agent to manage such register of shareholders. The original register of shareholders for holders of H shares shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

The Company shall keep at its domicile a duplicate of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares. The appointed overseas agent shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders at all times.

In the event that the original and duplicate of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares are inconsistent, the original shall prevail.

Article 48

The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include the following parts:

- (1) a register kept at the Company's domicile other than those provided for under items (2) and (3) of this paragraph;
- (2) the register(s) of holders of overseas listed foreign shares kept in the place(s) of the securities exchange(s) outside the People's Republic of China on which the shares are listed; and
- (3) registers of shareholders kept in such other places as the board of directors may decide necessary for listing purposes.

Article 49

Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. The transfer of shares registered in a certain part of the register of shareholders shall not, during the continuance of the registration of such shares on that part of the register, be registered in any other part of the register.

Changes and corrections to each part of the register of shareholders shall be in accordance with the laws of the places where that part is kept.

Article 50

All the fully paid overseas listed foreign shares shall be freely transferable pursuant to these Articles of Association. However, in relation to H shares the board of directors may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without providing any reason thereof, unless the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) a sum of HK$2.5 (per transfer document) or such other sum as the board of directors may require from time to time (provided that such sum shall not exceed such higher amount as stated in the Stock Exchange Listing Rules from time to time), has been paid to the Company for registration of the share transfer documents or such other documents in relation to or affecting the ownership of the shares;
- (2) the instrument of transfer only involves H shares;
- (3) the stamp duty payable in respect of the instrument of transfer has been paid;
- (4) relevant share certificates and such other evidence which the board of directors may reasonably require to show that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been produced;
- (5) if the shares are transferred to joint holders, the number of joint holders shall not exceed four; and
- (6) the shares concerned are free of any lien in favor of the Company.

Article 51

Where PRC laws and regulations and the Stock Exchange Listing Rules stipulate the period of closure of the register of shareholders prior to a shareholders' general meeting or the reference date set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 52

Where the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, liquidation or other matters requiring confirmation of equity interests, this should be fixed by the board of directors or the person convening the shareholders' general meeting as the record day. Shareholders registered on the register of members following close of trading on record date shall be entitled to those rights.

Article 53

Any person that challenges the register of shareholders and requests for his name to be entered into or removed from the register may apply to a competent Court for correction of the register.

Article 54

Any shareholder who is registered on the register of shareholders or requests for his name to be entered into the register of shareholders may apply to the Company for issuance of a replacement certificate in respect of such shares ("Relevant Shares") if his share certificate ("Original Share Certificate") is lost.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of domestic shares who have lost their certificates shall be dealt with in accordance with relevant requirements of the Company Law.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of overseas listed foreign shares who have lost their certificates may be dealt with in accordance with the laws, securities exchange regulations and other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of the overseas listed foreign shares is kept.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of H shares who have lost their certificates shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit the application in the form prescribed by the Company, accompanied by a notarial certificate or statutory declaration. The notarial certificate or statutory declaration shall include the applicant's reason for the application, the circumstances and proof of the loss of the share certificate and a declaration that no other person may require registration as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares;
- (2) The Company shall not have received any declaration requesting for registration as a shareholder in respect of such shares from any person other than the applicant before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate;
- (3) If the Company decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, it shall publish a public announcement of its intention to do so in the newspapers or periodicals designated by the board of directors; the period of the public announcement shall be 90 days, during which such announcement shall be published repeatedly at least once every 30 days;
- (4) Before publishing the public announcement in relation to its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, the Company shall submit a copy of the announcement to be published to the securities exchange on which it is listed, and may proceed with its publication after having received a reply from the securities exchange confirming that the announcement has been displayed in the securities exchange. The Company shall display the public announcement in the securities exchange for a period of 90 days. If the application for issuance of a replacement share certificate was made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall mail to such shareholder a photocopy of the public announcement that it intends to publish;
- (5) At the expiration of the 90-day period provided for in items (3) and (4) hereof, if the Company did not receive any objection to the issuance of a replacement share certificate from any person, it may issue a replacement share certificate according to the application of the applicant;
- (6) When the Company issues a replacement share certificate in accordance with this Article, it shall immediately cancel the Original Share Certificate and record such cancellation and the issuance of the replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders; and

- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of the Original Share Certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant. The Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action until the applicant has provided a reasonable guarantee.

Article 55

After the Company has issued a replacement share certificate in accordance with these Articles of Association, it shall not delete from the register of shareholders the name of a bona fide purchaser of the replacement share certificate mentioned above or a shareholder that is subsequently registered as the owner of the shares (provided that he is bona fide purchaser).

Article 56

The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the Original Share Certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate, unless the claimant is able to prove that the Company has acted in a deceitful manner.

CHAPTER 7: RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 57

Persons on the Company's register of members shall be deemed to be the Company's lawful shareholders.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and amount of shares held by them. Shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

Article 58

Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

 - (e) identification documents and their numbers;
- (iii) the status of the Company's share capital;
- (iv) the annual report;
- (v) reports showing the aggregate par value, number of shares, and maximum and minimum prices paid in respect of each class of shares bought back by the Company since the last fiscal year as well as all the expenses paid by the Company therefore; and
- (vi) minutes of shareholders' meetings, board resolutions and supervisors' resolutions, receipts of the Company's loan notes, financial reports;

In the event that any leakage of the above information by shareholders who obtained such information in accordance with these Articles of Association which results in damages to the Company's legitimate interests, such shareholders shall bear the compensation liability in accordance with the law for the relevant loss.

(6) to participate in the distribution of the Company's surplus assets according to their shareholding when the Company is terminated or liquidated;

(7) shareholders against the mergers or divisions of the Company tabled at shareholders' meeting, to request the Company to buy back its shares;

(8) other rights granted by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles of Association.

Article 59

A shareholder who wants to examine the mentioned information or request for the related material shall provide the Company with the written documentation evidencing the class and number of shares held by the shareholder. The Company shall provide the related information or material as per their request after having verified the identity of the shareholder.

Article 60

Where contents of resolutions of shareholders' in general meeting and board meetings, or its convention procedures, manner of voting is in contravention of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, shareholders have the right to resolve matters according to related procedures provided in the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 61

Directors, supervisors, senior management infringing laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association while executing their duties, resulting in damages to the interests of the Company or the shareholders; or where other persons infringe upon the lawful rights of the Company, resulting in losses to the Company, shareholders have the right to report the incident directly to the CBIRC, and resolve the matter according to related procedures provided in the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 62

Where shareholders' legal rights are infringed by directors or senior management, they shall have the right to request cessation of infringement and payment of damages in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 63

Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- (1) abide by the relevant laws, administrative regulations, regulatory requirements and these Articles of Association, exercise shareholder's rights in accordance with the law; protect the Company's reputation, support the Company's business development and shall not directly or indirectly interfere with the decision making or daily operation and management of the Company conducted according to the law;
- (2) contribute to the registered capital according to the amount of shares subscribed for and the method of purchasing such shares;

- (3) bear responsibility for the Company's debts to the extent of their shareholding in the Company and, unless according to the laws or regulations, shall not give up their shares;
- (4) not to abuse rights afforded to shareholders and harm the Company or interests of other shareholders; not to abuse the Company's separate legal existence or the limited liability of shareholders to violate the rights of the Company's creditors;

Shareholders abusing shareholders' rights and resulting in damage to the Company or other shareholders shall bear the compensation responsibility in accordance with laws;

Shareholders abusing the Company's separate legal existence and the limited liability of shareholders, avoiding debt, resulting in serious damage to the Company relationship with its creditors, shall bear joint responsibility for the Company's debt;

- (5) any contributed capital and shareholding shall comply with regulatory requirements, and shares held by nominees or at a ratio higher than the permitted percentage shall not be allowed. If the contribution by or behaviors of any shareholder are in violation of laws, regulations and relevant regulatory requirements, the shareholder shall not exercise shareholders' rights including the voting right, the entitlement to dividends and the right to nominate candidates, and shall undertake to accept the regulatory actions to be taken by the CBIRC, such as the restrictions on shareholders' rights and the order to transfer shareholding.

Investor who holds more than 5% of the issued shares of the Company by means of trading through the stock exchanges, shall apply for the approval by the CBIRC within five days after the occurrence of the fact. The CBIRC shall have the right to request the investor who do not meet the relevant qualification requirements to transfer the shares.

If the holding of a number of shares that exceeds the permitted number provided above (the "Excess Shares") by the Company's shareholders is not approved by the CBIRC, then prior to obtaining the approval of the CBIRC in exercising his rights as a shareholder prescribed by Article 58, he shall be subject to the following restrictions in respect of the Excess Shares, including but not limited to:

- (i) the Excess Shares do not carry any voting rights at the general meeting or any class meeting of shareholders; and
- (ii) the Excess Shares do not carry any right of nominating directors and supervisors provided in these Articles of Association; and
- (iii) the Excess Shares do not carry any right of receiving dividends.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a shareholder holding Excess Shares shall not be subject to any restrictions in exercising his rights under Article 58(6).

In the event that the holding of the Excess Shares by the Company's shareholders is not approved by the CBIRC, such shareholders shall transfer the Excess Shares within the time period as stipulated by the CBIRC from the date of disapproval by the CBIRC.

- (6) persons holding the Company's foreign shares (other than approved clearing houses by Hong Kong laws or other representatives of the same ("Recognized Clearing House")), shall inform the Company's share registrar in time, and report to the board of directors of the Company for record when there are any changes in their legal representative, company name, business address, business scope, or other major events. In respect of a Recognized Clearing House, when its authorized signatories, company name or address change, it shall inform the Company's registrar in time; and
- (7) shareholders shall support the Company to improve its solvency when the Company fails to meet the regulatory requirements;
- (8) obey and implement the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting;

- (10) not to damage the interests of other shareholders and the Company and not to agree that the pledgee or the affiliated parties shall exercise the voting rights when any shareholder pledges the shares of the Company;
- (11) other obligations stipulated in laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Other than the conditions agreed to by ordinary shareholders at the time of subscription, ordinary shareholders shall not be subject to additional conditions unilaterally imposed thereafter.

Article 64

In addition to the requirements set forth in Article 63, shareholders holding 5% or more of the Company's shares with voting rights shall also undertake the following obligations:

- (1) notify the Company in writing on the day of occurrence where the shares of the Company held are involved in litigation, arbitration, pledges or release of pledges;
- (2) if any connected relationship exists between shareholders holding 5% or more of the Company's shares, such shareholders shall report in writing to the board of directors of the Company within five working days from the date on which such relationship takes place, containing at least the name of the connected shareholders and an overview of the connected relationship;

- (3) shall faithfully notify the Company of information on the controlling shareholder and de facto controller; if there is any change in the controlling shareholder and de facto controller, notify the Company in writing of such changes as well as affiliated parties and the connected relationship within five working days upon the occurrence of those changes, and perform procedures as specified in regulations;
- (4) notify the Company in writing within fifteen working days upon the occurrence of a merger, separation, dissolution, bankruptcy, closing down, takeover and other material matters or changes in its legal representative, company name, site for business operation, business scope and other material matters.

Unless otherwise stipulated by laws, administrative regulations or regulatory requirements, the Company shall not freeze or otherwise impair any right of any person for the reason that the person fails to disclose that he directly or indirectly enjoys rights attached to the shares of the Company.

Article 65

The Company's shareholders shall not make use of its connected relationship to harm the Company's interests. Shareholders contravening the regulations resulting in the Company suffering losses shall compensate the Company.

The Company's controlling shareholder and de facto controller owes a duty of honour to the Company and the Company's other shareholders. The controlling shareholder must strictly comply with the laws in exercising its rights as capital contributor. Controlling shareholders must not use distribution of dividends, reorganization of assets, external investments, capital consumption, loans and guarantees, use of insurance funds, connected transactions etc., and shall not exploit their position to harm the Company or other shareholders.

Article 66

In addition to the obligations imposed by law, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the securities exchange(s) on which the shares of Company are listed, controlling shareholders may not, in the exercise of their shareholders' powers, make decisions prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders as a result of the exercise of their voting rights on the issues set forth below:

- (1) relieving a director or supervisor of the responsibility to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) granting approval to a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) for depriving the Company of its property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favorable to the Company; or
- (3) granting approval to a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) for depriving other shareholders of their rights or interests, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, unless pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to and adopted by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 67

For the purposes of the preceding Article, the term "controlling shareholder" shall refer to a person that satisfies any of the following conditions:

- (1) that person, where acting alone or in concert with other parties, has the power to elect more than half of the directors;
- (2) that person, where acting alone or in concert with other parties, can exercise or control the exercise of over 30% of the Company's voting rights;
- (3) that person, where acting alone or in concert with other parties, holds over 30% of the issued shares of the Company; or
- (4) that person, where acting alone or in concert with other parties, has actual control over the Company in any other manner.

For the purposes of this chapter, the term "acting in concert" shall refer to two or more persons acting unanimously, achieved by way of an agreement (whether orally or in writing), to obtain voting rights in the Company through any of such persons, so as to strengthen their control over the Company.

Article 68

Reference to de facto controller above shall mean individuals not being shareholders but, via investment relationships, agreements or other arrangements can actually control the activities of the Company.

CHAPTER 8: SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 69

The shareholders' general meeting shall be the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers according to laws.

- (3) any other means acceptable to stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 83

Upon delivery of the notice of a shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors shall not delay or cancel the meeting to be held, unless there is a proper reason; motions stated in the notice of general meetings shall not be cancelled. Where the shareholders' general meeting is to be delayed or cancelled, the convener shall announce reasons therefor not less than two working days prior to the original date of the meeting, the register date of shareholders' shall not be changed therefore.

Article 84

The board of directors and other convener shall take necessary measures to ensure the proper order of the shareholders' general meeting. The Company shall take actions to stop anyone from interrupting the meeting, making trouble or infringing the lawful interests of other shareholders and shall refer such cases to relevant authorities for handling in time.

Article 85

All the shareholders appearing on the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date or their proxy are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting and to exercise their voting right according to the relevant laws, regulations and these Articles of Association.

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder) as his proxy or proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. Such proxy may exercise the following rights according to his entrustment by the shareholder:

- (1) the shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) the casting of votes in exercising his right to vote.

Article 86

Shareholders shall appoint proxy in writing, signed by the person appointing or person authorised in writing. An instrument appointing a legal entity as proxy shall have applied to it its company chop or signed by its directors or duly authorized person or other authorized signatory. The form of proxy shall state the number of shares in respect of which the proxy shall act. Where multiple proxies are appointed, each instrument of proxy shall state the number of shares in respect of which the particular proxy shall act.

Article 87

The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or at the other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting to which the voting right as appointed by the instrument relates or within 24 hours prior to the specified time of the vote. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the power of attorney or other document authorizing the signature shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorizing document shall be deposited together with the instrument appointing the proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Where the entrusting party is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by resolution of its board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the Company's shareholders' meeting as the representative of such legal person.

Article 88

Any form of proxy instrument sent to shareholders by the board of directors of the Company for the appointment of proxy shall set out options for the shareholder to instruct its proxy as to whether to vote for or against, and shall give shareholders the opportunity to give instructions for each proposed resolution. The form of proxy shall specify in the absence of voting instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 89

Individual shareholders attending in person shall produce identity documents or other valid documents or evidence, securities account card as proof of identity.

Article 90

Proxies attending for individual shareholders shall produce identity documents and the instrument of proxies. Proxies attending for legal person shareholders appointed by the legal representative of the legal person shall produce identity documents and the instruments of proxies signed by the legal representative of the shareholder. Proxies attending for shareholders appointed by the board of directors or executive authority of the shareholder shall produce identity documents and the instrument of proxies signed by the board of directors or executive authority of the shareholder and stamped with company chop of the shareholder. Completed instruments of proxies shall be dated.

Article 91

The signature attendance record of the attendees of the shareholders' general meeting shall be prepared by the Company. Items such as name of the shareholders, identity code, address, number of voting shares held or represented, name of the proxy and the name of the shareholder being represented etc. shall be reflected in the attendance record.

Article 92

Votes by a proxy given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting in relation to which the proxy is issued.

Article 93

The Company's directors, supervisors and secretary of the Board should attend the shareholders' meeting. Senior management should sit in at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 94

The Company shall have a set of procedural rules for shareholders' meeting detailing the procedures regarding convening and voting at the shareholders' meeting, including notice, registration, consideration of motions, casting of votes, counting of votes, announcement of voting results, mode of resolutions, preparation and signing of minutes, public announcement and principles as relates to authorization.

Article 95

The board of directors and the supervisory committee should report to the shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting the work undertaken by them over the past year, and each independent director shall also report on the carrying out of their duties.

Article 96

The resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting are classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the Company's total voting rights held by the shareholders who are present at the meeting (including proxies).

Article 97

The following matters shall be resolved by way of ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee;
- (2) profit distribution proposals and proposals for making up losses formulated by the board of directors;
- (3) elect and replace directors and supervisors other than employee representative supervisors, and determine the remuneration and method of payment of the directors and supervisors, excluding the dismissal of independent directors;
- (4) the Company's annual financial budget plans, final financial plans, annual reports, balance sheets, profit and loss accounts and other financial statements;
- (5) guarantees provided by the Company to the Company's shareholders or the de facto controllers;
- (6) the Company's business policies and investment plans;
- (7) engagement or removal of the accounting firms responsible for performing regular and statutory audits for the financial reports of the Company;
- (8) matters other than those which are required by the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association to be resolved by way of special resolutions.

Article 98

The following matters shall be resolved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) increase or reduction of the Company share capital;

- (2) purchase of the Company's shares because of the circumstances (1) and (2) as required in Article 36 of these Articles of Association;
- (3) issuance of Company's bonds and any type of shares, warrants and other securities as well as the listing;
- (4) division, merger, dissolution and liquidation or change of the formation of the Company;
- (5) amendment of these Articles of Association of the Company;
- (6) the acquisition or disposal by the Company of material assets or the granting of guarantees within one year with a value exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets value;
- (7) share incentive schemes;
- (8) dismissal of independent directors;
- (9) approve other material matters that have reached the standard of review of the shareholders' general meeting including but not limited to, the establishment of corporate bodies, material external investments, material asset disposal and settlement, material asset pledges, etc. Please see Article 138 for the criteria of "material" referred to in this provision;
- (10) other matters which are required by the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, and matters which, according to an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, may have a significant impact on the Company and should require adoption by way of a special resolution.

Article 99

When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the shareholders' general meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares with voting rights attached they represent. Each share shall have one vote.

The Company's shares held by the Company shall not carry voting rights. Such shares shall not be included in the total numbers of the voting rights represented by the shareholders attending the meeting.

The board of directors, independent directors and certain qualified shareholders of the Company may canvass the Company's shareholders for votes at shareholders' general meetings.

Article 100

On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 101

When considering connected transactions at a shareholders' general meeting, the connected shareholders shall not participate in voting and the voting rights carried by the shares held by the connected shareholders shall be not counted towards the total number of shares entitled to vote.

When connected transactions are deliberated at the shareholders' general meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall explain the connected relationship and that the connected shareholders shall abstain from voting. Each resolution in relation to the connected transaction shall be deliberated in accordance with laws and regulations, regulatory requirements and these Articles of Association.

Where any shareholder is, under the Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or to vote only for or only against any particular resolution, the votes of those shareholders or proxy in contravention thereof shall not be counted towards the valid number of votes.

Article 102

Unless the accumulative voting system is adopted, the general meetings shall resolve on all motions included in the agenda separately. Where different motions for the same issue are proposed, such motions shall be voted on and resolved in the order of time in which they are proposed. Unless the shareholders' general meeting is adjourned or no resolution can be made due to special reasons such as force majeure, voting of such proposals shall neither be put on hold nor voting by-passed at the shareholders' general meeting.

Before a poll on the proposals is taken, persons may be invited to participate in the vote counting and scrutiny. However, shareholders connected to the considered matters at the shareholders' general meeting or their proxies shall not participate in the vote counting or scrutiny.

Article 103

No amendment shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at a shareholders' general meeting. Otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be regarded as a new proposal and shall not be voted on at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 104

The shareholders' general meeting shall vote by open ballot.

Article 105

More than half and no less than two independent directors shall have the right to propose to the board of directors for holding an extraordinary general meeting and should do so by written notice to the board of directors. With regard to the proposal made by the independent director for holding an extraordinary general meeting, the board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative rules and these Articles of Association, give a written reply on whether to hold the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal.

If the board of directors agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the board of directors. If the board of directors does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall give reasons and make an announcement in respect thereof, and the independent directors shall report to CBIRC.

Article 106

The supervisory committee shall have the right to propose to the board of directors to hold an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward its proposal to the board of directors in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, give a written reply on whether to hold the extraordinary general meeting or not within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal.

If the board of directors agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the board of directors. In the event of any change to the original proposal set forth in the notice, the prior consent of the supervisory committee shall be obtained.

If the board of directors does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a written reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, it shall be regarded that the board of directors cannot perform or fails to perform the duty of convening the extraordinary general meeting, and the supervisory committee may convene and preside over the meeting by itself.

Article 107

Shareholders shall comply with the following procedures when proposing to convene an extraordinary general meeting:

- (1) shareholders individually or collectively holding more than 10% of the Company's shares have the right to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and require the board of directors to reply in writing within 10 days upon receipt of the request whether it agrees or not to convene the extraordinary general meeting according to the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association of the Company;
- (2) if the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the board of directors. In the event of any changes to the original proposal set forth in the notice, the consent of the relevant shareholders shall be obtained.
- (3) if the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or fails to give a written reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding more than 10% of the Company's shares have the right to propose to the supervisory committee to convene an extraordinary meeting. The proposal shall be made in writing.

- (4) if the supervisory committee agrees to hold the extraordinary shareholders' general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after such proposal is received. In the event of any change to the original proposal set forth in the notice, the consent of the shareholders shall be obtained.
- (5) if the supervisory committee fails to give notice of general meeting within the specified period, the supervisory committee shall be regarded as not convening and holding the shareholders' general meeting, and the shareholders individually or collectively holding 10% or more shares carrying voting rights on such proposed meeting for over 90 consecutive days may convene the meeting on their own accord.

Article 108

Where the supervisory committee or shareholders decide to convene shareholders' general meetings by itself/themselves, it/they shall notify the board of directors in writing and file on record with the relevant governing authority in accordance with the applicable guidelines. The shareholding of the shareholders convening the general meeting shall not be less than 10% prior to announcing the results of the general meeting.

Article 109

If the number of directors falls short of the minimum number required by the Company Law or the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its paid-up share capital and the board of directors fails to convene the shareholders' meeting within the stipulated time, the supervisors or shareholders may convene a shareholders' meeting according to the procedure set forth in Articles 106 and 107.

Article 110

The general meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the board of directors who shall act as the chairman of the meetings. If the chairman is unable or has failed to perform his duties, the executive director acting as vice chairman shall preside over and act as the chairman of the meetings; in the event that the executive director acting as vice chairman is unable or has failed to perform his duties, the non-executive director acting as vice chairman shall preside over and act as the chairman of the meetings; in the event that the non-executive director acting as vice chairman is unable or has failed to perform his duties, a director shall be jointly elected by a simple majority of directors to preside over and act as the chairman of the meetings.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee itself shall be chaired and presided over by the chairman of the supervisory committee. If the chairman of the supervisory committee cannot perform or fails to perform his duties, the majority of the supervisors shall jointly elect a supervisor to chair the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided by a representative elected by the convener. If the convener cannot elect a chairman of the meeting, the shareholder attending the meeting that hold the most voting shares (including the proxy) shall be the chairman and preside the meeting.

When the shareholders' general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates these Rules which makes it difficult for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairman of the meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the shareholders having the voting rights who are present at the meeting.

Article 111

With regard to the shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee or shareholders on its/their own initiative, the board of directors and its secretary shall offer cooperation. The board of directors shall provide a register of shareholders as of the shareholding record date.

Article 112

The necessary expenses and cost for the shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee or the shareholders on its/their own initiative shall be borne by the Company.

Article 113

The measures and procedures to nominate directors and supervisors other than those representing employees are as follows:

- (1) the board of directors and the supervisory committee may respectively nominate the candidate for directors and supervisors to be elected from shareholders within the headcount limit as provided in these Articles of Association and according to the intended numbers to be elected.
- (2) the nomination committee shall preliminarily examine the qualifications and conditions of the director candidates and submit the qualified candidates to the board of directors for deliberation; the qualifications of the supervisor candidates shall be deliberated by the supervisory committee. The nominees of directors and supervisors shall submit a written proposal of the candidate directors and the candidate supervisors to the shareholders' general meeting. The board of directors and the supervisory committee shall provide to the shareholders the resume and brief conditions of the candidate directors and the candidate supervisors;
- (3) the shareholders' general meeting shall vote on the candidates one by one. Accumulative voting system may be adopted when electing directors and supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting. Accumulative voting system must be adopted for the election of directors and supervisors when a single shareholder of the Company (the shareholdings of connected shareholders and any person acting in concert with him/her shall be calculated accumulatively) holds more than 20% of the Company's shareholding, and no more than 2 directors can be nominated by any single shareholder;

- (4) in case of any need to add or change any director or supervisor, the board of directors or the supervisory committee is responsible for proposing to the shareholders' general meeting the selection or change of a director or supervisor.
- (5) where mandatory regulations in relation to the nomination of independent directors are otherwise provided by laws, regulations, regulatory documents and these Articles of Association, such regulations shall apply.

Article 114

Except for involving business secrets of the Company that cannot be disclosed, the directors, supervisors and senior management shall make replies or explanations to the inquiries and suggestions of shareholders on shareholders' general meeting.

Article 115

The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a shareholders' resolution has been passed, such determination shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced in the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Article 116

If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts as to the result of a resolution which has been put to vote at a shareholders' general meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder present in person or by proxy who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 117

If the votes are counted at the shareholders' general meeting, the result shall be recorded in the minutes.

Article 118

The shareholders' general meetings shall keep minutes. Directors, supervisors, the secretary to the board of directors, the convener or their representatives, and the chairman of the meeting and the recorders attending the meeting shall sign the minutes of the meeting.

The secretary of the board of directors shall be responsible for the minutes of shareholders' general meetings. The minutes shall set out the following:

- (1) the date, time place and agenda of the meeting, and the name of the convener;
- (2) the names of the chairman of the meeting, and the directors, supervisors, and other senior management of the Company attending or present at the meeting;
- (3) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares they represent and the proportion of the domestic shares shareholders (including by proxy) and the H shares shareholders (including by proxy) to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) the process of discussion in respect of each proposal, highlights of the proposals considered which are proposed by the persons who speak at the meeting and the results of the poll (the voting results of the domestic shares shareholders and the H shares shareholders in respect of each resolution should also be recorded);
- (5) details of the inquiries or recommendations of the shareholders, and the corresponding response or explanations;
- (6) the names of the counting officer and scrutinizer;
- (7) other matters which, according to the shareholders' general meeting and the provisions of these Articles of Association, shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 119

The convener shall ensure the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting, together with the shareholders' attendance sheets and proxy forms, other valid information relating to other modes of resolution shall be kept at the Company's premises. Minutes of meetings shall be kept for ten years.

Article 120

The resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be duly announced. In the event that a proposal in connection with the meeting has not been adopted or the resolutions of the preceding shareholders' general meeting have been changed at the current shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors shall specify the same in the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

The resolutions shall be reported to the CBIRC by the Company within 30 days after making by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 121

Newly appointed directors and supervisors shall effectively take office after the shareholders' general meeting on which the proposals to appoint the directors and supervisors were passed and the approvals of their qualifications were obtained from CBIRC.

Article 122

Where a proposal on cash dividends, bonus shares or increase of share capital by way of transfer from capital reserves is passed, the Company shall implement the specific scheme within two months upon conclusion of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 123

Copies of the minutes of meeting shall be available to any shareholder for inspection free of charge during the business hours of the Company. If a shareholder requests for a copy of the relevant minutes, the Company shall send a copy to him within seven days after receiving payment of the reasonable charges.

CHAPTER 9: SPECIAL VOTING PROCEDURES FOR SHAREHOLDERS OF DIFFERENT CLASSES

Article 124

Shareholders who hold different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Shareholders of different classes shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 125

If the Company intends to change or abrogate the rights of class shareholders, it may do so only after such change or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting and by a separate shareholders' meeting convened by the affected shareholders of that class in accordance with Articles 127 to 131.

Article 126

The rights of shareholders of a certain class shall be deemed to have been amended or canceled in the following circumstances:

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of such class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) to effect an exchange of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or to effect an exchange or create a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;

- (3) to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) to reduce or remove a dividend preference or property distribution preference during the liquidation of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (5) to add, remove or reduce share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, pre-emptive rights to rights issues or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) to remove or reduce rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in a particular currency attached to shares of such class;
- (7) to create a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) to restrict or impose additional restrictions on the transfer of ownership of shares of such class;
- (9) to issue rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
- (10) to increase the rights and privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) to restructure the Company where the proposed restructuring will result in different classes of shareholders having to bear liability to different extents; or
- (12) to amend or cancel the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 127

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not originally having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, shall have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters referred to in items (2) to (8) or (11) to (12) of Article 126, except that interested shareholders shall not have the right to vote at class meetings.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "interested shareholders" shall have the following meanings:

- (1) if the Company has made a buy-back offer to all shareholders in the same proportion or has bought back its own shares through public trading on a securities exchange in accordance with Article 37 hereof, the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 67 hereof shall be "interested shareholders";
- (2) if the Company has bought back its own shares by agreement outside a securities exchange in accordance with Article 37 hereof, holders of shares in relation to such agreement shall be "interested shareholders"; or

- (3) under a restructuring proposal of the Company, shareholders who will bear liability in a proportion smaller than that of the liability borne by other shareholders of the same class, or shareholders who have an interest in a restructuring proposal of the Company that is different from the interest in such restructuring proposal of other shareholders of the same class shall be “interested shareholders”.

Article 128

Resolutions of class meeting may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that class represented at the meeting in accordance with Article 127 hereof.

Article 129

When the Company is to hold a class meeting, it shall issue a written notice in accordance with the time required for notification of an extraordinary general meeting as stipulated in Article 74 of these Articles of Association, informing all the registered shareholders of that class of the matters to be examined at the class meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting.

The quorum for a separate class shareholders meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) to consider a variation of the rights of any class of shares shall be the holders of at least one-third of the issued shares of that class.

Article 130

The notice of a class meeting needs to be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote at that meeting.

The procedures according to which a class meeting is held shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which a general shareholders’ meeting is held. Provisions of these Articles of Association relevant to procedures for the holding of a shareholders’ general meeting shall be applicable to class meetings.

Article 131

In addition to holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be shareholders of different classes.

The special voting procedures for approval by a class of shareholders shall not apply:

- (1) where, as approved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders’ general meeting, the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares every 12 months, and the number of the domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares intended to be issued does not exceed 20 percent of the issued and outstanding shares of the respective categories; or

- (2) where the plan for issuance of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares upon the establishment of the Company is completed within 15 months after being approved by the CSRC.

CHAPTER 10: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 132

The board of directors shall compose of fifteen directors, which includes one chairman, two vice chairmen, six executive directors, four non-executive directors and five independent directors.

Article 133

A director is elected by the shareholders' general meeting with a term of office of three years. A director may serve consecutive terms if re-elected upon expiry of the term. The shareholders' general meeting shall not remove a director without due reason before the expiry of the director's term of office.

During the term of each session of the board of directors, the number of replaced directors each year shall not exceed one-third of the total number of directors. In the event that an independent director has reached the end of his/her six-year term, the director has resigned or becomes unable to fulfill his/her duty, the director was removed due to violation of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, the above restriction does not apply.

The senior management can also be directors, but the total number of directors who are also senior management shall not exceed one half of the total number of directors of the Company.

The chairman of the board of directors and the vice chairman (or vice chairmen) of the board of directors shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the directors. The chairman of the board of directors and the vice chairman (or vice chairmen) of the board of directors shall serve a term of three years and may serve consecutive terms if reelected upon the expiration of their terms.

The directors are natural persons and need not be shareholders.

Article 134

A written notice of the intention to nominate a person for election as a director and a written notice by that person expressly indicating his acceptance of such nomination shall be given to the Company no earlier than the day after the dispatch of the notice of the shareholders' general meeting and no later than seven days before the date of such shareholders' general meeting, and the minimum period during which the notices shall be given will be seven days.

Article 135

The term of a director's office commences from the date of appointment and ends with the term of the current board of directors.

Article 136

Subject to compliance with all relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting may by an ordinary resolution remove any non-independent director before the expiration of his term of office, or remove any independent director before the expiration of his term of office by way of a special resolution. However, the director's right to claim for damages under any contract shall not be affected.

Article 137

The board of directors shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to be responsible for convening shareholders' general meetings and reporting its work to the shareholders' general meetings;
- (2) to implement the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (3) to determine the Company's management and operation plans and investment schemes;
- (4) to formulate the Company's annual budgets and final accounts;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profits distribution plans and loss recover plans;
- (6) to formulate plans of increasing or decreasing the Company's registered capital, and issuing corporate bonds or other securities, and listing plans;
- (7) to draft plans for important acquisition or acquisition of the shares of the Company because of the circumstances (1) and (2) as required in Article 36 of these Articles of Association or the plans of merger, division, dissolution and change of the formation of the Company;
- (8) to determinate the setup of the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) to appoint and remove the Company's senior management as nominated by the chairman of the board of directors (CEO) and decide their remuneration, reward and reprimand matters;
- (10) to formulate the Company's basic management system and regulations; to formulate and enhance working mechanisms of the Company, such as internal control, compliance, risk, development planning;

- (11) to formulate proposals to amend these Articles of Association; to formulate procedural rules of shareholders' general meeting, procedural rules of the board of directors and to consider the working rules of the special committees of the board of directors;
- (12) to manage the issues in respect of the Company's information disclosure;
- (13) to decide on issues in respect of the material investment, acquisition or sale of assets, disposal and write-off of assets, asset mortgage, external guarantee, entrusted financing, affiliated transactions, etc. as authorized by shareholders' general meetings;
- (14) to receive the work report of the Company's CEO and supervise his/her work;
- (15) to conduct an annual due diligence appraisal of the directors, and submit the due diligence report of the directors to the shareholders' general meeting and the supervisory committee;
- (16) to propose to shareholders' general meetings the engagement or dismissal of the accounting firms responsible for performing regular and statutory audits on the financial reports of the Company;
- (17) to select and engage an external auditor responsible for auditing the directors and senior management of the Company;
- (18) to pass resolutions on purchase of the shares of the Company because of the circumstances (3), (5) and (6) as required in Article 36 of these Articles of Association;
- (19) to exercise other powers as provided by laws, administrative rules or these Articles of Association and as authorized by the shareholders' general meeting.

All the above board resolutions shall be passed by over one half of the directors; provided that the resolutions covered in items (6), (7) and (11) and in relation to the granting of external guarantee shall be passed by over two-thirds of the directors.

The powers of the board of directors described in this Article shall be exercised collectively by the board of directors. The statutory powers of the board of directors shall generally not be delegated to the chairman of the board of directors, any director or any other individual or institution. Where it is necessary, it shall be done by means of resolution of the board of directors. The board of directors shall only delegate its power once to a single specific matter, and shall not grant power generally or permanently to any other institution or individual of the Company.

Article 138

The board of directors shall determine the scope of authorities in respect of external investment, acquisition or sale of assets, disposal and write-off of assets, asset mortgage, external guarantees, entrusted finance management and connected transactions, and establish strict examination and decision making procedures. Material investment projects shall be reviewed by experts and professionals and shall be subject to shareholders' approval at general meeting.

The "material investment projects" referred to above shall mean an investment project where any of the applicable assets, consideration, profits, revenue or equity ratios as prescribed by the Stock Exchange Listing Rules from time to time of which (the "5 ratios") is over 25%, or an investment project where any of the transaction amount ratio and net profit ratio (the "2 ratios") as prescribed by SSE Listing Rules from time to time of which is over 50%.

Any investment where any of the 5 ratios are below 25% or investments where any of the 2 ratios are below 50% shall be determined by the board of directors as authorized by the shareholder at general meeting.

Article 139

In disposing of fixed assets, where the sum of the expected value of the fixed assets to be disposed of together with the value of the fixed assets which have been disposed of within the four months preceding the proposal to dispose of these assets exceeds 33% of the value of the fixed assets reflected by the latest balance sheet approved by the shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors shall not dispose of, or agree to dispose of, such fixed assets without the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting

For the purposes of this Article, the term "disposal of fixed assets" shall include the assignment of a certain interest in assets other than by way of guarantees.

The validity of transactions whereby the Company disposes of fixed assets shall not be affected by the breach of the first paragraph hereof.

Article 140

The board of directors shall make presentations to the shareholders' general meeting on the non-standard audit opinion produced by the certified accountants on the Company's financial reports.

Article 141

The board of directors shall prepare procedural rules for board meetings so as to ensure the working efficiency and scientific decision-making of the board of directors.

Article 142

The chairman of the board shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to procure and examine the implementation of resolutions of the board of directors;
- (3) to sign securities certificates issued by the Company;
- (4) to sign important documents of the meetings of the board of directors and other documents that require signature by the legal representative of the Company;
- (5) to exercise the powers of legal representative;
- (6) other functions and powers granted by the board of directors.

Article 143

The board of directors shall convene regular board meeting at least four times each year. The meeting shall be convened by the chairman and all the directors and supervisors shall be notified in writing 14 days prior to the meeting.

The chairman of the board of directors shall convene and preside over an extraordinary board of directors meeting within 10 days upon the receipt of a proposal for such a meeting where a meeting is:

- (1) considered by the chairman of the board of directors to be necessary;
- (2) jointly proposed by one-third or more of the directors;
- (3) proposed by the supervisory committee;
- (4) proposed by the CEO; or
- (5) proposed by the shareholders representing more than 10% of the shares with voting rights of the Company.

Article 144

The board of directors may convene extraordinary board meeting and conduct the voting via telecommunications. The 14-day prior notice requirement need not apply in this situation provided that notice of such a meeting shall be delivered to the directors and supervisors in a timely and effectively manner.

No meeting shall be convened by way of voting via telecommunications in respect of any proposals voted by the board of directors in relation to the profit distribution plan, remuneration plan, major investment and assets disposal, appointment and discharge of senior management, and other proposals regarding the risk management of the Company.

Article 145

The notice for a board of directors meeting shall include the following:

- (1) the date and venue of the meeting;
- (2) the time limit for the meeting;
- (3) the reasons for and the proposed resolutions of the meeting; and
- (4) the date of the notice.

Article 146

Unless otherwise required in these Articles of Association, the quorum for a board of directors meeting shall be more than one half of the directors, including the directors authorized to attend pursuant to Article 150.

Each director shall be entitled to one vote. Unless otherwise required in these Articles of Association, resolutions of the board of directors shall be passed by more than half of all the directors.

Voting at a board of directors meeting shall be by a show of hands.

Article 147

Proposals at the meetings of the board of directors shall contain specific matters to deliberate and vote on.

In principle, the board of directors at the meeting shall not vote on any proposal unspecified in the notice of the meeting. When all directors of the Company unanimously agree to exempt the flaw in procedures due to a special reason of an ad hoc proposal made by an institution or individual qualified to propose, such proposal can be deliberated and voted.

Article 148

A director who is connected to companies associated with matters to be resolved at the board of directors meeting, such director shall not vote, on his own or other director(s)'s behalf, on such resolution. Such board of directors meeting may be held with not less than one half of the unconnected directors present and the resolutions thereof are to be passed by not less than two thirds of the unconnected directors. If less than three unconnected directors are present at the board of directors meeting, such matters shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval.

The Board shall submit a report in respect of the status of connected transactions and the implementation of management system on connected transactions to the general meeting on an annual basis.

Article 149

An extraordinary board of directors meeting may be held and the directors may vote by means of facsimile provided that the right of the directors to express their opinions can be protected sufficiently, and the directors in attendance shall sign the resolution.

Article 150

Meetings of the board of directors shall be attended by the directors in person. Where a director is unable to attend a board of directors meeting in person, he/she may authorize another director in writing to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. The written power of attorney shall set forth the name of the proxy, the matters being authorized, the scope and duration of the authorization and shall be signed or chopped by the authorizing director.

A director who attends a meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority granted. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the board of directors and has not appointed a representative to attend on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights in respect of that meeting.

Article 151

The board of directors shall keep minutes of its decisions on the matters examined at its meetings. The directors attending a meeting and the person taking minutes shall sign the minutes of that meeting. Directors present in the meeting shall have the right to add explanatory descriptions to his/her representations at the meeting in the minutes. The directors shall bear liability for the decisions of the board of directors. Where a resolution of the board of directors violates laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, and thereby causing serious losses to the Company, the directors who took part in the resolution shall be liable to the Company for damages. However, where a director can prove that he expressed his opposition to such resolution when it was put to be voted on, and that such opposition was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, the director may be relieved from such liability.

The minutes of board meeting shall be kept as archives of the Company by the secretary of the board of directors. The meeting files of the board of directors including the minutes of board meetings shall be kept permanently.

Article 152

The minutes of board meetings shall include the following contents:

- (1) the date, venue and convener of the meeting;

Article 179

The validity of an act of a director or other senior management of the Company on behalf of the Company towards a bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularity in his current position, election or qualifications.

Article 180

Shareholders shall effectively manage personnel who simultaneously serve positions in the shareholders and the Company to avoid conflicts of interests. Shareholders and non-executive directors may not, for any reason or by any means, appoint executive director or senior management to the Company, or, directly or indirectly, intervene in the legal decision making and daily operation and management of the Company.

Article 181

In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or listing rules of the securities exchange(s) on which shares of the Company are listed, the Company's directors, supervisors and other senior management shall owe the following obligations to each shareholder in the exercise of the functions and powers granted to them by the Company:

- (1) not to cause the Company to act beyond the scope of business as stipulated in its business license;
- (2) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to deprive the Company of its property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favorable to the Company; and
- (4) not to deprive shareholders of their individual rights or interests, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, but not including the restructuring of the Company submitted to and adopted by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 182

The Company's directors, supervisors and other senior management shall have an obligation, in the exercise of their rights or discharge of their obligations, to perform their due acts with care, diligence and skill as a reasonable and prudent person shall do under similar circumstances.

Article 183

Unless provided by these Articles of Association or where authority has been granted by the board of directors, a director shall not act on behalf of Company or the board of directors in his individual name. In the event that a reasonable third party will consider the director to be acting on behalf of the Company or the board of directors, the director shall declare his position and identity in advance.

Article 184

The Company's directors, supervisors and other senior management shall, in the exercise of their duties, abide by the principles of honesty and creditability and shall not place themselves in a position where there is a possible conflict between their personal interests and their duties. This principle shall include (but not limited to) the fulfillment of the following obligations:

- (1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to exercise powers within the scope of their functions and powers and not to act beyond such powers;
- (3) to personally exercise the discretion vested in him, not to allow himself to be manipulated by another person and, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion to another party unless permitted by laws and administrative regulations or with the consent of the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed of the situation;
- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to be impartial to shareholders of different classes;
- (5) not to conclude a contract or enter into a transaction or arrangement with the Company except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Association or with the consent of the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed of the situation;
- (6) not to use Company property for his own benefit in any way without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed of the situation;
- (7) not to use his functions and powers as a means for accepting bribes or other forms of illegal income, and not to illegally appropriate Company assets in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favorable to the Company;
- (8) not to accept commissions in connection with Company transactions without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed;
- (9) to abide by these Articles of Association of the Company, perform his duties faithfully, protect the interests of the Company and not to seek personal gain with his position, functions and powers in the Company;
- (10) not to compete with the Company in any way without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed;
- (11) not to embezzle Company funds or lend Company funds to others, not to deposit Company assets in accounts opened in his own or in another's name, and not to use Company assets as security for the debts of the Company's shareholders or other personal debts; and
- (12) not to disclose confidential information relating to the Company that was acquired by him during his office without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed, and not to use such information except in the interests of the Company; however, such information may be disclosed to the court or other government authorities if:

- (i) required by law;
- (ii) required in the public interest; or
- (iii) required in the own interest of such director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company.

Article 185

A director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company may not incite the following persons or organizations (“connected persons”) to carry out matters that a director, supervisor or other senior management may not themselves do:

- (1) the spouse or minor child of a director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company;
- (2) the trustee of a director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company or of any person referred in item (1) hereof;
- (3) the partner of a director, supervisor, manager, deputy manager or other senior management of the Company or of any person referred in items (1) and (2) hereof;
- (4) the Company over which a director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company, alone or jointly with any person referred to in items (1), (2) and (3) hereof or any other director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company, has actual control;
- (5) a director, a supervisor or other senior management of a company being controlled as referred to in item (4) hereof; and
- (6) the “associates” (as defined by the Stock Exchange Listing Rules from time to time) of a director, a supervisor or member of senior management of the Company.

Article 186

The obligation of honesty and credibility of the Company’s directors, supervisors, CEO and other senior management does not necessarily cease with the termination of their office. Their confidentiality obligation in relation to the Company’s trade secrets shall continue after the termination of their office. The term for which other obligations shall continue shall be decided upon in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending on the time lapse between the termination and the occurrence of the matter as well as the circumstances and conditions under which the relationship with the Company terminated.

Article 187

A director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company may be relieved from liability for a specific breach of obligations by the shareholders' general meeting that has been informed of the situation, except in circumstances as specified in Article 66 hereof.

Article 188

If a director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company has directly or indirectly vested a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement concluded or planned by the Company (except his employment contract with the Company), he shall disclose the nature and extent of his interest to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the matter is normally subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Unless the interested director, supervisor or other senior management of the Company has disclosed such interest to the board of directors as required under the first paragraph hereof and the matter has been approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which he was not counted in the quorum and had refrained from voting, the Company shall have the right to void the contract, transaction or arrangement, except where the other party is a bona fide party acting without knowledge of the breach of obligation by the director, supervisor or other senior management concerned.

A director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company shall be deemed to have an interest in any contract, transaction or arrangement in which a connected person of that director, supervisor or other senior management has an interest.

Article 189

If a director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company gives a written notice to the board of directors before the conclusion of the contract transaction or arrangement is first considered by the Company, stating that due to the contents as stipulated in the notice, he has an interest in the contract, transaction or arrangement that may subsequently be made by the Company, such director, supervisor, CEO or other senior management of the Company shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Chapter to have declared his interest, insofar as attributable to the scope stated in the notice.

Article 190

If a director fails to attend in person or appoint another director to attend the meeting of the board of directors twice consecutively, he shall be deemed as unable to perform his duties, and the meeting of the board of directors shall make a suggestion to the shareholders' general meeting for the director to be replaced.

A director may submit his resignation before his term of appointment expires. A director planning to resign shall submit a written resignation to the board of directors. The board of directors shall disclose the relevant circumstances within two days.

Where a director's resignation results in the number of directors falling below the minimum number prescribed by law, the outgoing director shall continue to discharge his duties as a director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association until a new director is appointed in his place.

The remainder of the board of directors shall convene an extraordinary shareholder's general meeting as soon as possible, and elect another director to fill the vacancy resulting from such resignation.

Save as provided in the previous paragraph, a director's resignation shall be effective when the letter of resignation has been delivered to the board of directors.

A director whose term of appointment has not yet expired shall bear the liability for the damages caused by demission at his own discretion.

Article 191

Prior to the expiry of the term of his/her office, an independent director may not be removed without proper reasons. For independent directors who has lost his/her independence but has not resigned or has otherwise become unsuitable to continue his/her independent directorship, the Company shall remove him/her from office by way of convening a shareholders' general meeting.

The removal of an independent director shall be passed by two-thirds or more of voting rights held by the shareholders who are present at the shareholders' general meeting. The independent director shall have the right to make his defense and statement prior to the vote.

Article 192

Aside from exercising the powers as a director, the independent directors shall also provide an objective, impartial and independent opinion to the board of directors and the shareholders' general meeting on the following matters:

- (1) material connected transactions;
- (2) nomination, appointment and removal of the directors, as well as the engagement and dismissal of the senior management;
- (3) remuneration of the directors and the senior management;
- (4) profit distribution plans;
- (5) investment, lease, purchase and sale of assets, guarantee and other material transactions which are outside the operation plan;
- (6) other matters that may have a material effect on the interests of the Company, the insured and the minority shareholders;

- (7) other matters as stipulated by laws and regulations, regulatory requirements or these Articles of Association.

The independent director shall submit written opinions to the Company and report to the CBIRC when he/she abstains from voting of or votes against or has obstacles in giving any opinion on the above matters.

Article 193

Aside from exercising the powers of a director as stipulated in other articles of these Articles of Association, the independent directors shall have the following special powers:

- (1) conduct review on the fairness, internal review and implementation and impact on the interest of the insured of material connected transactions, and the independent directors shall issue their opinion in writing in relation to the problematic connected transactions. If believed to be necessary by no less than two independent directors, an intermediary agency may be engaged to submit an independent financial advisory report as basis for judgment;
- (2) more than half and no less than two independent directors may propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting;
- (3) more than two independent directors may propose to convene a meeting of the board of directors;
- (4) to independently engage external auditors and consultants;
- (5) other powers as stipulated by laws and regulations, regulatory requirements and these Articles of Association.

The Company shall provide necessary conditions for independent directors to effectively carry out the aforesaid powers.

Article 194

Supervisors shall comply with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association and shall fulfill his supervisory duties diligently and shall not take advantage of his position to receive any bribe or illegal income, and shall not misappropriate the assets of the Company.

Article 195

Where a supervisor fails to attend the Committee meetings in person twice consecutively and does not appoint another supervisor to attend the meetings on his behalf, the supervisor will be deemed as failing to perform his duties and the shareholders' general meeting or the employees' representative meeting shall remove and replace the supervisor.

Article 196

A supervisor may submit his resignation before the expiration of his term, and the provisions of these Articles of Association relevant to resignation of directors shall also apply to supervisors.

Article 197

Where the term of appointment of supervisors has expired and no new appointments are made in time resulting in the number of supervisors falling below the prescribed number, the outgoing supervisors shall continue to discharge their duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association until appointments are made.

Article 198

The Company may not in any manner pay tax on behalf of its directors, supervisors, and other senior management.

Article 199

To the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, the Company may:

- (1) purchase and maintain insurance against any liability for the directors of the Company;
- (2) the Company shall, under following circumstances, provide compensation using the Company's property, for liabilities resulting from self-defence in civil or criminal litigation arising from a director's acts or omissions made in his capacity as director or a director being charged for acts or omissions made in his capacity as director, unless the director violates the acts or omissions set forth in Article 61 or Article 184 of these Articles of Association, or the director's conducts involve a gross breach of duty, improper or fraudulent acts:
 - (i) judgments of the relevant litigation are in favor of the director;
 - (ii) the director is adjudged to be innocent in the judgments of relevant litigations; or
 - (iii) if there is any application for exemption of act or omission herein which is pursuant to law and has been granted by the court.

Article 200

The Company may not directly or indirectly provide a loan or loan security to its directors, supervisors or other senior management, those of its parent company, or connected persons of the above-mentioned persons.

The preceding paragraph shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (1) The provision of a loan or loan security by the Company to its subsidiary;
- (2) The provision of a loan or loan security or other funds by the Company to a director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company under an employment contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting, so as to enable him to pay the expenses incurred for a purpose in relation to the Company or for the performance of his Company duties; and
- (3) The provision of a loan or loan security by the Company to a relevant director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company or to a connected person thereof on normal commercial terms, if the ordinary business scope of the Company includes the lending of money or the provision of loan security.

Article 201

A loan provided by the Company in violation of the preceding Article shall be immediately repayable by the recipient of the loan, regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 202

The Company may not be forced to perform a loan security provided by the Company in violation of the first paragraph of Article 200, except:

- (1) when the loan is provided to a connected person of a director, a supervisor, the CEO or other senior management of the Company or its parent company, the loan provider is not aware of the circumstances; and
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully sold by the loan provider to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 203

For the purposes of the preceding Articles of this chapter, the "security" shall include an act whereby a guarantor assumes liability or provides property to guarantee or secure the performance of obligations by an obligor.

Article 204

If a director, a supervisor or other senior management of the Company breaches his obligations to the Company, the Company shall, in addition to any rights and remedies available under laws and administrative regulations, have a right to:

- (1) require the relevant director, supervisor or other senior management to compensate for the losses sustained by the Company as a consequence of his dereliction of duty;

- (2) rescind any contract or transaction concluded by the Company with the relevant director, supervisor or other senior management and any contract or transaction with a third party where such third party is aware or shall be aware that the director, supervisor or other senior management representing the Company was in breach of his obligations to the Company;
- (3) require the relevant director, supervisor or other senior management to surrender the gains derived from the breach of his obligations;
- (4) recover any funds received by the relevant director, supervisor or other senior management that shall have been received by the Company, including (but not limited to) commissions; and
- (5) require the relevant director, supervisor or other senior management to return any interest accrued or could have accrued on funds which should have been paid to the Company.

Article 205

The Company shall enter into a written contract with each director and supervisor of the Company concerning his emoluments. Such contracts shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting before it is entered into. The above-mentioned emoluments shall include:

- (1) emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management of the Company;
- (2) emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments otherwise in connection with the management of the Company or any subsidiary thereof; and
- (4) funds as compensation for loss of office or retirement for the aforementioned directors and supervisors.

A director or supervisor may not sue the Company for benefits due to him on the basis of the above-mentioned matters, except under a contract as mentioned above.

Article 206

The Company shall specify in the contract concluded with a director or supervisor of the Company concerning his emoluments that in the event of a takeover of the Company, a director or supervisor of the Company shall, subject to prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other funds obtainable for loss of office or retirement.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term “a takeover of the Company” shall refer to any of the following circumstances:

- (1) Anyone making a general offer to all the shareholders; or
- (2) Anyone making a general offer with the purpose of making offeror a controlling shareholder as defined in Article 67 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor fails to comply with this Article, any fund received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of the above-mentioned offer, and the expenses incurred in the distribution of such funds on a proportional basis shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and may not be paid out of such fund.

CHAPTER 15: FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS, DISTRIBUTION AND AUDITING OF PROFITS

Article 207

The Company shall formulate its own financial and accounting systems in accordance with Insurance laws and regulations, relevant laws, administrative regulations and PRC accounting standards formulated by the State Council’s department in charge of finance.

Article 208

The Company's fiscal year starts on January 1 and ends on December 31.

Article 209

The Company shall within 3 months from the end of each financial year submit and report its financial account report to the CSRC and the Stock Exchange, and shall submit and report its interim financial account report to appointed authorities of the CSRC and the Stock Exchange within 2 months from the end of the first 6 months of each financial year, and shall submit and report quarterly financial account reports to the appointed authorities of the CSRC and the Stock Exchange within one month from the end of the first 3 months and 9 months of each financial year respectively.

The above financial reports shall be prepared according to the regulations of relevant laws, administrative and departmental regulations.

Article 210

The Company’s annual financial reports shall be examined and verified according to laws.

The Company's financial reports shall be prepared in accordance with laws and regulations.

The Company's financial reports shall include the following accounting statements and schedules:

- (1) balance sheet;
- (2) profit statement;
- (3) profit distribution statement;
- (4) cash flow statement;
- (5) notes appended to financial statement.

Article 211

The board of directors of the Company shall place before the shareholders at each annual shareholders' general meeting such financial reports that the relevant laws, administrative regulations and regulatory documents promulgated by the local government and the authorities-in-charge require the Company to prepare.

Article 212

The financial reports of the Company shall be made available for inspection at the Company by shareholders twenty (20) days prior to an annual shareholders' general meeting. Each shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this chapter.

The Company shall deliver or send the said reports to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign shares by prepaid mail at the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders no later than 21 days prior to an annual shareholders' general meeting.

Article 213

The financial statements of the Company shall be prepared not only in accordance with China's accounting standards, laws and regulations but also in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place(s) outside the People's Republic of China where shares of the Company are listed. If there are any major differences in the financial statements prepared in accordance with these two sets of accounting standards, such differences shall be stated in notes appended to such financial statements. For purposes of the Company's distribution of after-tax profits in a given fiscal year, the smaller amount of after-tax profits shown in the above-mentioned two kinds of financial statement shall apply.

Article 214

Interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards, laws and regulations as well as international standards or the accounting standards of the place(s) outside the People's Republic of China where shares of the Company are listed.

Article 215

The Company may not establish any other account books other than the statutory account books. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in an account opened under any personal name.

Article 216

The profits after tax of the Company shall be distributed in the following sequence:

- (1) cover losses in the previous year;
- (2) allocate 10% to statutory revenue reserve;
- (3) allocate to discretionary revenue reserve;
- (4) pay dividends to shareholders.

When the accumulated statutory revenue reserve exceeds 50 percent of the Company's registered capital, the Company may cease to make such allocation. If the statutory revenue reserve is not sufficient to cover the losses made in the previous year, the profits of the current year shall be used to cover such losses before allocation to the statutory revenue reserve is made in accordance with the provisions of the previous paragraph. The decision on whether to make any allocation of profit after tax to the discretionary revenue reserve, after making allocation to the statutory revenue reserve, is subject to the resolution at general meetings.

The profits after tax of the Company, after covering the losses and making allocation to the revenue reserve, shall be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their proportion of shareholdings in the Company.

If it is resolved at the general meeting to distribute profit to shareholders before covering the losses and making allocation to statutory revenue reserve in violation to the provisions of the previous paragraph, the shareholders shall return such distributed profits to the Company.

The shares held by the Company shall not participate in the profit distribution.

The Company shall attach importance to the reasonable investment returns of investors in terms of its profit distribution. The profit distribution policy of the Company shall maintain its continuity and stability. The accumulated profit to be distributed in cash for any three consecutive years shall not be less than 30% of the average annual distributable profit realized in the three years, provided that the annual distributable profits of the Company (namely profits after tax of the Company after covering the losses and making contributions to the revenue reserve) are positive in value and such distributions are in compliance with the prevailing laws and regulations and the requirements of regulatory authorities for solvency ratio. In determining the specific ratio of distribution of cash dividend, the Company shall take into account its profit, cash flow, solvency and operation and business development requirements. The board of directors of the Company shall be responsible for formulating and implementing a distribution plan according to the provisions of these Articles of Association.

In preparing profit distribution plans, the board of directors of the Company shall listen and absorb views and advice from shareholders (in particular, the minority shareholders), independent directors and independent supervisors through various ways. Independent directors of the Company shall express their independent opinions on the profit distribution plans. When a specific cash dividends distribution plan is put forward for consideration at a general meeting, a variety of channels shall be provided for communication and opinion exchange with shareholders (in particular, the minority shareholders), whose opinions and demands shall be fully heard and prompt response shall be given to any issues the minority shareholders are concerned.

Where adjustment to our profit distribution policy is required due to the applicable national laws and regulations and new rules promulgated by the CSRC regarding profit distribution policies of listed companies or significant changes in the external business environment and/or operating situations of the Company, it shall be done for the purpose of safeguarding the shareholders' interests and in strict compliance with the decision-making process. To this end, the board of directors of the Company shall work out an adjustment plan based on the operating situations of the Company and the relevant regulations of the CSRC, and then submit the same to the general meeting for consideration and approval. Implementation of the adjustment plan is conditional upon approval by shareholders (including their proxies) holding more than two-thirds of voting rights present at the general meeting.

Article 217

The revenue reserve of the Company shall be used to cover the Company's losses, expand its production and operation, or be converted to increase the Company's capital. However, the capital revenue reserve shall not be used to cover losses of the Company.

Article 218

Where a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting of the Company resolves to convert the revenue reserve into share capital, the Company shall issue new shares to the existing shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholdings. When converting the statutory revenue reserve into share capital, the balance of such revenue reserve shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital before the conversion.

Article 219

The capital common reserve fund shall include the following funds:

- (1) The premiums obtained from the issue of shares in excess of the par value; and

- (2) Other revenue required by the State Council's department in charge of finance to be included in the capital common reserve fund.

Article 220

Unless otherwise resolved at the shareholders' general meetings, the Directors may distribute interim dividends if so authorized by the shareholders' general meeting. Unless otherwise regulated by laws and regulations, the amount of interim dividend shall not be more than 50% of the distributable profit in the interim profit and loss account of the Company.

Article 221

The Company may distribute dividends in the following forms:

- (1) Cash; and/or
- (2) Shares.

Article 222

After the resolution regarding distribution of profits has been approved at the general meeting of the Company, the board of directors shall within 2 months after the general meeting complete the distribution of dividends (or shares).

Where the Company makes payment of cash dividends and other amounts to the holders of domestic shares, the payment shall be calculated and declared in Renminbi and be paid in Renminbi within two months after declaration of the dividends. Where the Company makes payment of cash dividends and other amounts to the holders of foreign investment shares, the payment shall be calculated and declared in Renminbi and be paid in Renminbi within two months after declaration of the dividends.

Where the Company makes payment to holders of foreign investment shares in foreign currency, the foreign currency shall be arranged in accordance with the relevant state foreign exchange regulations. Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any share may carry interest but shall not entitle the holder of the share to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared.

In relation to the power to forfeit unclaimed dividends under the third paragraph of this Article, that power shall not be exercised until six years or more after the date of declaration of the dividend.

Article 223

The Company shall appoint recipient agents for holders of overseas listed foreign shares to collect on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividends distributed and other funds payable in respect of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China.

The recipient agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws of the place(s), or the relevant regulations of the securities exchange(s), where the shares are listed.

In relation to the sending of dividend warrants by post, the Company shall have the right to cease sending dividend warrants by post if such warrants have been left uncashed after having been sent twice consecutively. Such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

The Company has the right to take back and sell the shares of a shareholder who is untraceable under the following circumstances:

- (1) during a period of 12 years, at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable by the Company and no dividend has been claimed during that period; and
- (2) on expiry of the 12 years, the Company gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an advertisement published in the newspapers and notifies the Hong Kong Stock Exchange of such intention.

The recipient agents appointed by the Company for holders of H shares shall each be a company registered as a trust company under the Hong Kong Trustee Ordinance.

Article 224

The Company shall take out security funds, insurance security funds and different types of insurance liability reserves in accordance with relevant national regulations. If the Company's solvency fails to meet the regulatory requirements, the Company shall not distribute profits to its shareholders.

Article 225

The Company shall implement an internal audit system and employ internal auditors to perform internal audit and supervision on the financial revenue, expenditure and operating activities of the Company.

Article 226

The internal audit system and the duties of the auditors of the Company shall be implemented subject to the approval of the board of directors. The person in charge of the audit shall be responsible to and report to the board of directors.

Article 227

The Company shall perform audit on the senior management of the Company when they leave their positions.

CHAPTER 16: BASIC MANAGEMENT SYSTEM OF THE COMPANY

Article 228

The Company shall formulate various basic management systems, including but not limited to, connected transactions, information disclosure, internal control compliance and internal audit in accordance with the laws, regulations and requirements of securities regulatory authorities where the Company's shares are listed as well as other regulatory authorities such as the CBIRC.

Article 229

The Company shall regularly review and update the above basic management systems in accordance with the laws, regulations and requirements of securities regulatory authorities where the Company's shares are listed as well as other regulatory authorities such as the CBIRC (as amended from time to time).

CHAPTER 17: NOTICE AND ANNOUNCEMENT

Article 230

The notice of the Company may be sent out in the following manner:

- (1) delivered by hand;
- (2) delivered by post;
- (3) by announcement;
- (4) sent by facsimile;
- (5) other forms stipulated in these Articles of Association.

Article 231

The notice sent by the Company in the form of public announcement shall be deemed to have been received by all of the relevant personnel once such a public announcement has been published.

For matters where announcements shall be made in accordance with the laws, regulations and requirements of securities regulatory authorities where the Company's shares are listed as well as other regulatory authorities such as the CBIRC or made pursuant to resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings or of the board of directors or the supervisory committee, the Company shall designate the media recognized by the regulatory authorities such as the CBIRC and securities regulatory authorities where the Company's shares are listed to publish and disclose announcements and information.

Article 232

When a Company notice is served by hand, a return receipt shall be signed (or stamped) by the receiver, and the date of signature by the receiver shall be the service date; when served by mail, the service date shall be the third business day after the sending date. Where a Company notice is published by way of announcement, the service date shall be the date when the announcement was first published. Where a Company notice is served by way of facsimile, the service date shall be the date the facsimile was sent out, and shall be evidenced by the facsimile report.

Article 233

A meeting and the resolutions adopted thereat shall not be invalidated as a result of the accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to, or the failure of receiving such notice by, a person entitled to receive such notice.

CHAPTER 18: EMPLOYMENT OF ACCOUNTING FIRM

Article 234

The Company shall employ an independent accounting firm that complies with relevant state regulations to perform audit of the annual financial reports and other financial reports of the Company, verification of the net assets and provide other consultation services regarding the relevant business.

Article 235

The term of employment of an accounting firm employed by the Company shall be from the end of the annual shareholders' general meeting of the Company until the end of the next annual shareholders' general meeting. Such employment can be renewed.

Article 236

An accounting firm employed by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (1) The right of access at all times to the account books, records or vouchers of the Company and the right to require directors and other senior management of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations;
- (2) The right to require the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries the information and explanations necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties; and
- (3) The right to attend shareholders' general meetings and to receive a notice or other information concerning any meeting which any shareholder has a right to receive, and to be heard at any shareholders' meeting on any matter which relates to it as the accounting firm of the Company.

Article 237

If the position of accounting firm becomes vacant, the board of directors may appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before a shareholders' general meeting is held. However, if there are other accounting firms holding the position as an accounting firm of the Company while such vacancy still exists, such accounting firms may continue to act.

Article 238

The shareholders' general meeting may, by means of an ordinary resolution, dismiss any accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term of employment, notwithstanding anything in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company, but without prejudice to such accounting firm's right, if any, to claim damages from the Company in respect of such dismissal.

Article 239

The remuneration or method of remuneration of an accounting firm shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm employed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

Article 240

The employment, dismissal or refusal of the renewal of the employment of an accounting firm shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting and reported to the CSRC for record.

Where a shareholders' general meeting is proposed to pass a resolution to appoint an accounting firm other than an incumbent accounting firm, to fill any vacancy in the office of the accounting firm, or to re-appoint an accounting firm which was appointed by the board of directors to fill a causal vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm before expiry of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) A copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent before the notice of shareholders' general meeting is issued to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or to the accounting firm which has left its post in the relevant fiscal year. References to "leaving" herein include leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.
- (2) If the accounting firm leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give notice of such representations to the shareholders, the Company shall take the following measures unless it has received the representations too late:
 - (i) Elaborate the representations made by the accounting firm leaving its post in any notice given to shareholders for the purpose of passing such resolution; and

- (ii) Attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in these Articles of Association.
- (3) If the Company fails to circulate the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in the second paragraph of this Article, such accounting firm may require the representations to be read out at the meeting and can make further complaints;
- (4) The accounting firm which has left its post shall be entitled to attend the following meetings:
 - (i) The shareholders' general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;
 - (ii) The shareholders' general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
 - (iii) The shareholders' general meeting, which is convened as a result of its voluntary resignation.

The leaving accounting firm shall have the right to receive all notices of, and other information relating to any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any affair which concerns it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 241

When the Company dismisses or does not renew the employment of an accounting firm, it shall give a notice to the accounting firm 10 days in advance. The accounting firm shall have the right to present its views before the shareholders' general meeting. Where an accounting firm tenders its resignation, it shall inform the shareholders' general meeting of whether there is any irregularity in the Company.

An accounting firm may resign from its office by way of depositing at the Company's domicile a resignation notice in writing which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (1) A statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers necessary to be explained to shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) A statement of any such circumstances as it considers necessary to be explained.

Where a notice is deposited in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the Company shall send a copy of the notice to the relevant authorities within 14 days. If the notice contains a statement referred to in item (2) of the preceding paragraph, a copy of such statement shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of such statement by prepaid mail to every holder of overseas listed foreign shares at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement of any circumstances it considers necessary to be explained, it may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting for the purpose explaining the circumstances connected with its resignation.

CHAPTER 19: MERGER AND DIVISION OF THE COMPANY

Article 242

The Company can undergo mergers and divisions according to the law.

Article 243

The merger or division of the Company shall require a proposal by the board of directors. After such proposal has been adopted in accordance with the procedures specified in these Articles of Association, it shall be reported to the CBIRC for approval. Shareholders opposing such proposal on the merger or division of the Company shall have the right to require the Company or shareholders that are in favor of such proposal to purchase their shares at a fair price. The contents of resolutions approving the merger or division of the Company shall be compiled in a special document for inspection by shareholders.

Holders of foreign investment shares listed in Hong Kong shall be served copies of the above-mentioned document by mail to the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Article 244

Merger of the Company may take the form of merger by absorption and merger by new establishment.

In the case of a merger, parties to the merger shall execute a merger agreement, and shall prepare the balance sheets and a schedule of assets. The Company shall notify the Company's creditors within a period of 10 days on which the resolution to proceed with the merger is passed, publish at least three announcements on the merger in newspaper within 30 days of that date.

Upon completion of the merger, the disposal of the assets, the rights, the obligations of each part, shall be regulated clearly through signing a contract.

After the merger, the rights and the obligations of each part shall be assumed by the company in existence or the newly established company after the merger.

Article 245

If the Company is to be divided, its property shall be divided accordingly.

For the division of a company, the parties to the division shall enter into a division agreement and prepare balance sheets and an assets list. The Company shall notify its creditors within a period of 10 days from the date on which the resolution to proceed with the division is passed and publish at least three announcements on the division in newspaper within 30 days of that date.

Debts owed by the Company prior to the division shall be assumed by the companies in existence after the division in relation to the relevant responsibility, except different provisions in the agreement entered into between creditors and the Company prior to the division.

Article 246

Creditors shall, within a period of 30 days commencing from the date of receiving the written notice or within a period of 45 days commencing from the date of the first announcement for those who did not receive a written notice, have the right to claim full repayment or provision of a corresponding guarantee from the Company. The Company shall not proceed with the merger or the division if it fails to repay its debts in full or to provide corresponding guarantee.

Article 247

The board of directors shall take necessary measures to protect the lawful rights and interests of the shareholders that oppose the proposals for the merger or division of the Company.

Article 248

Where the merger or division of the Company results in a change in its registered particulars, such change shall be registered with the Company registry according to law. Where the Company is dissolved, it shall cancel its registration according to law. Where a new company is established, its establishment shall be registered according to law.

CHAPTER 20: DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 249

The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated according to law if:

- (1) the shareholders' general meeting resolves to dissolve the Company;
- (2) dissolution is necessary as a result of the merger or division of the Company;

- (3) the Company is declared bankrupt according to law because it is unable to pay its debts as they fall due;
- (4) the business license of the Company is lawfully dismissed or countermanded or if the Company is ordered to be closed down; or
- (5) there is severe difficulty in the operation and management of the Company, and the continued existence of the Company will have material prejudice to the interests of the shareholders and there is no other way to resolve, shareholders who hold an aggregate of over 10% of the whole voting rights can seek the People's Court to dissolve the Company.

The effectiveness of the dissolution shall be subject to the approval by CBIRC, and liquidation shall be performed under the supervision and guidance of the CBIRC.

Article 250

Where the Company is to be dissolved pursuant to sub-paragraphs (1), (3), (4) or (5) of the preceding Article, it shall establish a liquidation committee within 15 days. The members of such liquidation committee shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting by way of an ordinary resolution. If the liquidation committee is not established within the prescribed period, the creditors can apply for the People's Court to appoint the relevant officers to establish the liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Where the Company is to be dissolved pursuant to sub-paragraph (2) of the preceding Article, liquidation shall be carried out by the parties to the merger or division in accordance to the agreements reached at the time of merger or division.

Article 251

If the board of directors decides that the Company shall be liquidated (except for liquidation as a result of company's declaration of bankruptcy), the notice of the shareholders' general meeting convened for such purpose shall include a statement to the effect that the board of directors has made full inquiry into the position of the Company and that the board holds the opinion that the Company can repay its debts in full within 12 months after the commencement of liquidation.

The functions and powers of the board of directors shall terminate immediately after the shareholders' general meeting has adopted a resolution to carry out the liquidation. The functions and powers of the CEO shall terminate immediately after the establishment of a liquidation committee.

The liquidation committee shall take instructions from the shareholders' general meeting, and make a report to the shareholders' general meeting on the committee's income and expenditure, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation not less than once a year. It shall make a final report to the shareholders' general meeting when the liquidation is completed.

Article 252

The liquidation committee shall notify creditors within a period of 10 days from the date of its establishment and publish at least three announcements of the liquidation in a newspaper certificated by the CBIRC within 60 days.

Creditors shall, within 30 days since the date of receiving the notice, report their creditors' rights to the liquidation committee, or for creditors who do not receive the notice, within 45 days since the date of the first public notice. Where creditors do not report their creditors' rights to the liquidation committee according to schedule, the rights shall be deemed to have been waived by the creditors. When reporting creditors' rights, the creditor shall provide an explanation of matters relevant to the creditor's rights and shall provide evidentiary materials. The liquidation committee shall register the creditors' rights.

In the course of reporting creditors' rights, the liquidation committee shall not repay the creditors.

Article 253

The liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers during liquidation:

- (1) to thoroughly examine the assets of the Company and prepare a balance sheet and property list respectively;
- (2) to notify creditors by a notice or public announcement;
- (3) to deal with and liquidate relevant unfinished businesses of the Company;
- (4) to repay all outstanding tax payment and the tax payment which arise in the course of the liquidation process;
- (5) to clear up claims and debts;
- (6) to deal with the remaining assets after full payment of the Company's debts; and
- (7) to participate in civil litigation on behalf of the Company.

Article 254

After the liquidation committee has thoroughly examined the Company's assets and prepared a balance sheet and assets list, it shall formulate a liquidation plan and submit such plan to the shareholders' general meeting or relevant authorities in charge for confirmation.

Payment of debts out of Company property shall be made in following sequence:

- (1) liquidation expenses;
- (2) wages owed to employees of the Company, labour insurance fees and statutory compensation;
- (3) outstanding taxes;
- (4) discharging debts of the Company.

Company assets remaining after full payment in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to the Company's shareholders according to the category and proportion of their shareholding. Distributions shall not be made to the shareholders before the distribution of the Company's assets in accordance with the above paragraph have been made.

During liquidation, the Company continues to exist but may not engage in business activities which are irrelevant to the liquidation.

Article 255

If the Company is liquidated due to dissolution and the liquidation committee, having thoroughly examined the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and property list, discovers that the Company's property is insufficient to pay its debts in full, it shall immediately apply to the People's Court for a declaration of bankruptcy.

After the People's Court has ruled for the Company to declare itself bankrupt, the Company's liquidation committee shall refer the liquidation matters to the People's Court.

Article 256

Following the completion of liquidation, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation report, a revenue and expenditure statement and financial account books in respect of the liquidation period and, after verification thereof by an accountant registered in the PRC, submit the same to the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant authorities in charge for confirmation.

Within thirty (30) days from the date of confirmation of the above-mentioned documents by the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant authorities in charge, the liquidation committee shall deliver the same to the Company registry, apply for cancellation of the Company's registration and publicly announce the Company's termination.

Article 257

Members of the liquidation committee shall faithfully perform their liquidating duties and conduct their liquidation obligations in accordance with the law, and shall not be permitted to exploit their powers to accept bribes or other illicit gains, nor shall they be permitted to seize the Company's property.

Members of the liquidation committee shall bear the liability for damages suffered by the Company or creditors due to their intentional or grossly negligent conducts.

Article 258

If the Company is lawfully declared bankrupt, liquidation shall be implemented according to the relevant laws on enterprise bankruptcy.

CHAPTER 21: SPECIAL MATTERS IN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Article 259

When the chairman of the board of directors is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, the executive director acting as vice chairman shall perform such duties. When the executive director acting as vice chairman is unable to or fails to perform such duties, an executive director elected by more than half of the directors shall perform such duties.
